Project Learning Tree®

Performance Assessment Sample Rubric

Use a rubric, such as the example provided below, to evaluate students' ability to demonstrate Level B performance expectations.

| | | 4 Points | 3 Points | 2 Points | 1 Point | Total |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Part 1 | Data Summary | Table is complete and accurate. | Table is mostly accurate with a few minor errors. | Table has significant errors. | Table is missing significant data. | |
| | Graph of Daylight Hours | Graph uses the data from the summary table and there is a line connecting the data points. | Graph mostly uses the data from the summary table and there is some attempt to connect data points into a line. | Graph does not use the correct data from the summary table or does not connect data points into a line. | Graph does not use the correct data from the summary table and does not connect data points into a line. | |
| Part 2 | Season Tree Chart | Pictures of trees are accurate for the season and for the hours of daylight present. | Pictures of trees are mostly accurate for the season and for the hours of daylight present. | Pictures of trees do not match the season or the hours of daylight present. | Pictures of trees do not match the season and the hours of daylight present are not correct. | |
| | Predicting Summer Conditions | Picture of tree in summer accurately represents the tree and correctly identifies the pattern for summer daylight hours. | Picture of tree in summer is mostly accurate in representing the tree and in identifying the pattern for summer daylight hours. | Picture of tree in summer shows significant errors in representing the tree or in identifying the pattern for summer daylight hours. | Picture of tree in summer shows significant errors in representing the tree and in identifying the pattern for summer daylight hours. | |

Total:     /16